Logan was born November 24, 2002 in Aberdeen, SD, to Jim and Pam (Rye) Klebsch. Logan was raised on the family farm with his big brother Collin. He was a sixth grader at Redfield Public School and enjoyed his many friends at school and playing basketball and football. He enjoyed fishing and camping with his family, anytime they could get away. He enjoyed helping on the farm any way he could, including driving tractors and herding cattle.

Logan loved animals and raised pheasants, geese, chickens and anything else he could find. He was an avid basketball and football player, and always asked his mother if he could just run one more play. A star that burns twice as bright only burns half as long.

Logan is survived by his parents, Jim and Pam Klebsch, Redfield; one brother, Collin, Redfield; maternal grandparents, Wendell and Charla Rye, Claremont, SD; paternal grandparents, William and Zelda Klebsch; maternal great grandmother, Patricia Nietert, Aberdeen; his aunts and uncles, Michele (Steve) Cogley, Claremont; Gretchan (Justin) Cleveland, Groton; Heather (Chad) Ronshaugen, Dell Rapids, SD; Jeff Klebsch, Frankfort, and Karen (Rob) Stephenson, Redfield, and many cousins, great uncles and aunts, and his many friends.

He was preceded in death by one uncle, David Rye, and his maternal great grandfather, Charles "Duke" Nietert.
